OKLAHOMA CITY, OK – National political consulting firm Tomahawk Strategies, headquartered in Oklahoma City, has added former Oklahoma Republican Party Political Director, Brandon Baumgarten, to their growing campaign team in Oklahoma. Baumgarten will be working as a Political Consultant within Tomahawk Strategies to assist the firm with statewide candidate engagement and outreach efforts.

“We are honored and excited to add Brandon to our Oklahoma team. I have personally known Brandon for decades, previously through the Oklahoma FFA and while he was the Political Director for the OKGOP. He is a charismatic speaker, methodical thinker, and passionate leader who will find his talents well utilized within our firm. The momentum we are seeing within Oklahoma has been overwhelming to say the least, and we are now working to grow our team with the best political talent in the state,” said John Fritz, Principal & CEO at Tomahawk Strategies.

Brandon Baumgarten grew up in the small town of Oilton, Oklahoma. He is a professional speaker, author, leadership coach, and award-winning soloist, who speaks at over 100 events a year including various conferences, Fortune 500 companies, school assemblies and more. Brandon is a graduate of Oklahoma State University with a Bachelor’s Degree in Agricultural Leadership and served as State President & National Officer Candidate to the Oklahoma FFA, representing nearly 25,000 students on the local, state, and national levels. Brandon is married to his wife April, and they currently reside in Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Tomahawk Strategies is now offering 40 individual campaign management services to every county in the state. Ensuring a continued dedication to meeting client demands, the firm has put a priority on expanding its campaign team with talented professionals that share in its mission of electing conservative leaders that will stand on principle and defend America’s greatness.

“It’s great to be put in a situation where we have to build our team to keep up with client demands. It means we are doing something right, and we get the opportunity to scale our business with professionals that bring a lot to the table. Brandon is certainly one who will help Tomahawk Strategies thrive in several crucial areas. He comes highly recommended by some very big names in the state and will be a valued addition to the Tomahawk team,” said Josh Wagoner, Principal & Creative Director at Tomahawk Strategies.

Tomahawk Strategies implements a wide variety of political campaign management services relating to general consulting, ground game operations, creative branding, fundraising, social media management, video production, direct mail, data analytics, and much more.
